Fire safety position in Vigyan Bhavan

*211. SHRI VIREN J. SHAH: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Vigyan Bhavan building was visited only a few days before the outbreak of fire by the fire authorities; if so, what were their observations;

(b) whether Vigyan Bhavan was declared unsafe from fire point of view and the requisite arrangements were lacking in this regard; and

(c) the names and details of the Government buildings in Delhi which are not safe in case of fire?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI MUFTI MOHAMMED SAYEED): (a) On 13.4.1990, a team of Delhi Fire Service officers visited Vigyan Bhawan and checked the fire protection arrangements in Hall 'G' where a Conference was to held from April, 16. They suggested the provision of portable extinguishers, emergency light, etc

(b) No, Sir. However, in 1987, certain deficiencies in fire prevention and fire safety measures in Vigyan Bhawan, according to revised norms, were brought to the notice of CPWD by Delhi Fire Service.

(c) A list of 79 high-rise buildings belonging to Central Government/ Local Bodies which are not fully safe from fire point of view is enclosed. [See Appendix XLIV, Annexure 46]

Steps to check communal riots in the country

*212. SHRI A. G. KULKARNI:
SHRI VISHWASRAO RAM RAO PATIL:

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware that fundamentalists and religious fanatics are creating a vicious atmosphere which may result in communal riots in the country; and

(b) if so, whether the recent riots in Ahmedabad and the potentialities of riots in Uttar Pradesh on the Babri Masjid issue have been taken care of and if so, what steps are proposed in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI MUFTI MOHAMMED SAYEED): (a) and (b) There have been some attempts by some fundamentalist and revivalist elements to create communal tensions. The Government is of the view that strict steps should continue to be taken by the State Governments to maintain law and order. The Government is also of the considered opinion that a broad-based national consensus should be built to counter the problem of communalism.

All necessary help and assistance will continue to be provided to the concerned States whenever required. The Government is determined to foil the mischievous designs of the communal and divisive forces.
